PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We're back!

As the Huntsville Festival of the Arts celebrates its 30th season and as the COVID restrictions are finally lifting, we are delighted to reconnect with you through the arts. Thank you to our sponsors, government agencies, patrons and members who helped sustain the HFA over the past two years.

Our Executive Director Dan Watson has put together a wonderful series of performances that brings us together in enjoyment and support of art, music, drama and comedy. Thank you to our volunteer board of directors who actively participate with Dan in marketing, education, fundraising and programming.

Above all, thank you for coming to the show. We do this for you.

Gord Duncan, President – Huntsville Festival of the Arts

MAYOR'S MESSAGE

It is my extreme pleasure to welcome you to the 30th year of the Huntsville Festival of the Arts. The Festival is an integral part of Huntsville's cultural fibre and brings an eclectic mix of entertainment and display to our town.

Through the years, the Huntsville Festival of the Arts has grown from a summer season to year-round programming and is truly the backbone of our cultural community.

I commend the Festival director and executive for their perseverance through the challenges of the past two years and congratulate them on this milestone anniversary.

To all the volunteers and the supporting patrons and sponsors, I thank you for all your contributions through the years. Our community is stronger because of you.

All the very best for 2022 and years to come!

Karen Terziano, Mayor – Town of Huntsville

MPP's MESSAGE

Congratulations to the Huntsville Festival of the Arts for 30 years of extraordinary shows and events!

I am so pleased to have represented a riding with such strong arts and culture institutions and I am proud of the work we did to support festivals such as the Huntsville Festival of the Arts through the pandemic.

As I reach the end of my time as MPP, I want to once again recognize the important role these events play in making Parry Sound – Muskoka such an incredible place to live. I am greatly looking forward to being able to enjoy the Festival of the Arts this year, and to sharing the delight that the Festival brings with my family for years to come.

Have a safe and enjoyable summer as you take in all that the Huntsville Festival of the Arts has to offer!

Norman Miller, MPP - Parry Sound - Muskoka

MP's MESSAGE

Welcome to the Huntsville Festival of the Arts! Once again, the Festival has planned a wonderful program of uniquely talented artists for you to enjoy!

I want to congratulate the Huntsville Festival of the Arts for their incredible contribution to the cultural vitality of our region. The Festival has evolved into an iconic Huntsville experience due to a combination of attracting tremendous caliber talent to our community and fostering a nurturing environment for local artists.

I want to personally offer my sincere thanks to every individual involved with the Festival for the enriching contribution you make to our community. The countless volunteers are the backbone who make the Festival a reality and make it accessible to as many people as possible.

As memorable as your experience will be, I know that together we are cultivating a more inclusive and celebrated community. To residents and visitors alike - take in the Festival - soak up Huntsville in the summer and don't miss a moment!

Scott Aitchison, MP - Parry Sound - Muskoka

2022 - 30 Years!

Festival Artist - Janine Marson

Art, music and theatre are inextricably interwoven together for me. I am very honoured to be selected to design an original painting for the Huntsville Festival of the Arts to celebrate their 30th Anniversary.

I have many fond memories of enjoying and participating in fantastic events with artists such as Jesse Cook, to classical and original performances by our own local pianist Sarah Spring, to theatre plays and readings such as "When Winnie Knew", to even painting a rendition of Tom Thomson's "Northern River" on the HFA play me piano and painting a canoe during the HFA Canoe Mural Festival in 2021.

Blue and blue-violet lights capture the joy of seeing the wonderful lighting effects in those performances on stage, and is one of the things I definitely wanted to incorporate into my painting.

The natural beauty of 30 lustrous, freshwater pearls celebrates the special 30th Anniversary by acknowledging the significant achievement of 30 years of The HFA bringing special performances, events and festivals to Huntsville.

The 3 elegant cream coloured Picasso Calla Lilies with their artistically painted blue-violet and red-violet inside cups are like curtains on a stage, revealing and celebrating the artistic achievement and significant milestones of 10, followed by 20 and now 30 years of growth. The spots on the leaves represent the thousands of volunteers who have supported and been there show after show.

I included specific musical symbols to represent the multi levels involved in creating not only music but to acknowledge the number of people it takes to make it all happen in the HFA organization. In particular the Treble Clef represents the beginning years of the HFA steady and sure; the Bass Clef represents the grounding, underlying energy and direction of the present, and the Coda symbol is used as a navigation marker to organize and chart the way forth, repeating things that have worked or jumping ahead into the future.

Thank you, Janine Marson

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Huntsville Festival of the Arts makes its home on the ancestral territory of the traditional territories of the Anishinaabeg, specifically the Chippewa, Ojibwa and Potawatomi peoples, under the Robinson-Huron Treaty of 1850 and the Williams Treaties of 1923.

Together, we honour and thank indigenous peoples – all First Nations, Métis and Inuit – for their cultures, their languages, their wise teachings and ways of being, their stewardship and protection of the lands and waters – and life – that have shaped this place since time began.

Together, we commit to acknowledge, to learn, to educate, to create opportunity and to honour sacred places, and to work hard for real Truth and Reconciliation in support of our commitment to wellness for all, and for future generations.

Flávia Nascimento joins Tio Chorinho, Canada's first ensemble dedicated to performing Brazilian choro music. Choro (pronounced SHOH-roh) is a primarily instrumental style originating in Rio de Janeiro in the late-19th century. Choro is the original Brazilian soul music, combining popular and classical European styles with Afro-Brazilian influences. It is the foundation of many modern Brazilian music styles and is often described as "the New Orleans jazz of Brazil." Exciting, energetic, soulful, intimate, nostalgic, and virtuosic, choro is an infectious popular style whose universal appeal belies its musical complexity.

Canada's first professional choral group dedicated to Afrocentric music of all styles, including classical, spiritual, gospel, jazz, folk and blues. The 21 classically trained outstanding vocalists of The Nathaniel Dett Chorale have shared the stage with internationally recognized artists such as Juno Award-winning jazz pianist Joe Sealy, singers Molly Johnson and Jackie Richardson, and opera star Kathleen Battle and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. The Chorale has performed at events honouring world leaders Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu, personality Muhammad Ali, and pianist Oscar Peterson and was the only Canadian ensemble invited to perform as part of the celebrations surrounding the historic inauguration of President Barack Obama in January of 2009.

Gord Sinclair, best known as bassist and songwriter with Canadian rock legends The Tragically Hip, shares music from his debut solo album Taxi Dancers, work that fearlessly explores Sinclair's despair about losing his lifelong friend and bandmate Gord Downie. But it is also a clear-eyed survey of what's good in the world, and a profound statement about why sorrow must be viewed in tandem with joy. Both are elemental aspects of living, and music — especially rock music, with its boundless capacity for nuance, shading, and sheer emotional heft — is perhaps life's purest mirror.

If you ask Kathleen Edwards, the best thing she ever did was quit.

By 2014, the singer-songwriter had released four studio albums and amassed widespread critical acclaim. She had been touring since the release of her 2012 album, Voyageur, and the prospect of returning home—only to start writing her way toward another album, and another tour—felt impossibly daunting. She put her guitar away, at least for awhile: she moved back to her hometown of Ottawa and settled down in Stittsville and opened a coffee shop called “Quitters”.

But in 2018, she received an unexpected phone call that changed that. Maren Morris, a longtime fan, invited her to Nashville for a songwriting session. This collaboration gradually evolved into the recording of her 2021 album Total Freedom: a return to form and a “hard reset,” one that empowered Edwards to write and perform entirely on her terms.

Tom Wilson & Iskwe Δᓃᓃᓃ

In March 2020 Tom Wilson asked Iskwe to be a guest performer with him on the Indspire Awards, duetting with him on his song, Blue Moon Drive. The two artists had never performed together but the chemistry and the magic was instantaneous.

Iskwe | Δᓃᓃᓃ is, among many other things, an artist – a creator and communicator of music and of movement, of pictures, poetry and prose. And through it all, she's a teller of stories that have impacted our past and will inform our future.

Tom Wilson is a Canadian music legend, famed storyteller and visual artist. In his memoir, Beautiful Scars, Wilson reveals the impact of discovering his Indigenous heritage after a chance encounter with a stranger caused him to question everything he had always known about his past. Musically, Wilson is best known for his work with Blackie & The Rodeo Kings and Lee Harvey Osmond, the latter receiving a 2020 Juno Award for the album "Mohawk".
