Important Notice!

By registering to participate in the Huntsville Festival of Music you are agreeing that the festival can use your name and or photos in advertising, promotion, social media, and websites. If you do NOT wish to have your photo published please contact:
huntsvillefestivalofmusic@gmail.com

1. Registration form must be completed in full for registration to be accepted.
2. Please consult the online Rules and Regulations before submitting the application form – www.huntsvillefestival.ca/
3. Festival of Music assumes no responsibility for providing permission to perform or copy a composer's/author's work.
4. Group entries must be registered in the oldest member's class (ensembles) or highest grade (school).
5. Please be specific eg. Sonata in G+ Op. 10 No.3 (1st Mvmt.) L.V. Beethoven
TBA will not be accepted.
6. It is the responsibility of each participant to ensure they are not infringing on the composer's/author's rights in the performance of their selections.
7. All classes are open to AMATEURS only unless otherwise specified. An amateur is defined as a person whose principal livelihood is not derived from the performance or teaching of music or drama.

2023 Festival Locations

The Festival classes will take place on March 2nd - 3th, 2023 in 3 locations within downtown Huntsville:

- Trinity United Church, 33 Main St E
- St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, 1 High St.
- The Salvation Army, 4 Mary St E

Dates and locations are subject to change – please check your competitor letter (due out in February) for your performance dates.

Although the Huntsville Music Festival cannot accommodate requests for specific dates and will not be held responsible should a competitor encounter a personal scheduling conflict with their appointed performance time – if we are made aware of potential conflicts in advance, we will certainly do our very best to take this under consideration.
